

Now You Can Personalize Your Own Picture Presentation To Accompany "Before You Go"

The makers for "Before You Go" are now an affiliate of AVinciMedia.com. AVinci Media are the makers of the wonderful software that allows you to create your own presentations with personal photographs and mementos set to your choice of music. As an added bonus, they have included "Before You Go" in their music library. Now you can personalize the presentation that accompanies "Before You Go".

We have learned about and documented some items regarding the process that you will find helpful. You may want to print this document if, after looking it over you decide to download the software.

Some Important Things to Note:

Some basic computer knowledge is needed. You should be comfortable downloading and installing software, finding and opening the program and managing files (specifically images). You may also find it helpful to have the ability to scan old photographs and other relevant items for use in your presentation.

When you click the link on our site to download your free software you will be taken to our affiliate page on the AVinci web site. The software you download will assist you in assembling your presentation. Once you're happy with your work you can place an order for a DVD of your work and other products.

There are detailed instructions below. Downloading the software is free and it's fun to play with it. You are not obligated to place an order for your presentation.

Technical support is available from AVinci Media. You can find all the contact information on www.BeforeYouGo.us.

Each presentation will use a total of 40 images. All 40 image place holders MUST be filled to complete your order. If you don't have enough photographs consider using ticket stubs, letters, post cards or anything else relevant to the subject. You may be surprised at how great they work in the presentation. You are also free to use images more than once.

For your convenience we've included some stock photos available for download from www.BeforeYouGo.us.

Your presentation will be saved if you close the Software before completing it. There is no warning that it's saving but when you reopen the software it asks if you want to continue working on your previous project.

aVinci includes in the software a great selection of what they call "Themes" or "Styles" from which to choose. We will refer to them as "Styles". They create the appropriate mood to go with your presentation. We have found that the "Achievement" style seems to be the most fitting to use with "Before You Go" but you may find another that fits your needs better.

The music playing during the preview is distorted but will give you a very clear idea how the final product will look and sound. When you receive your final product from AVinci Media it will come with added cinematic affects and CD quality sound.

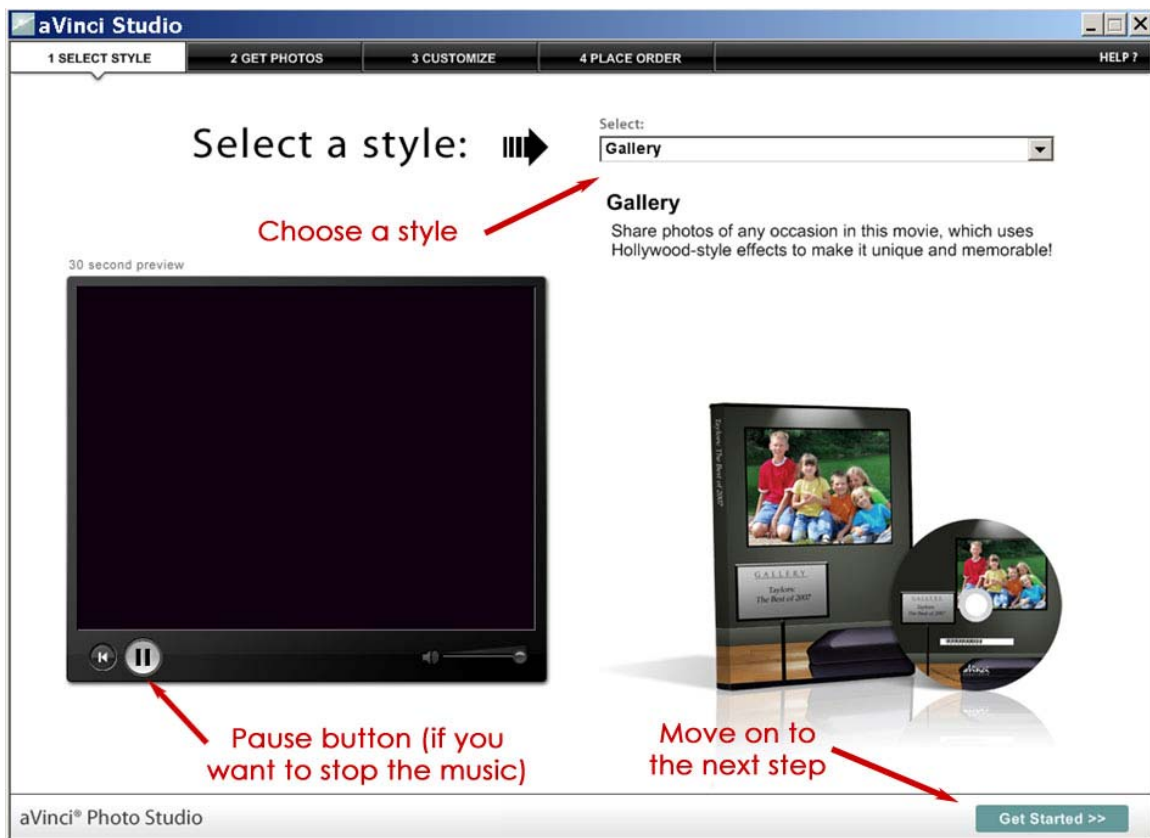

There is a demonstration video available at www.BeforeYouGo.us that is helpful to preview before you get started using the program.

The only payment method accepted at this time is credit card.

The AVinci Studio software does not work on a Mac.
